

Filling trays with compost

Tools required

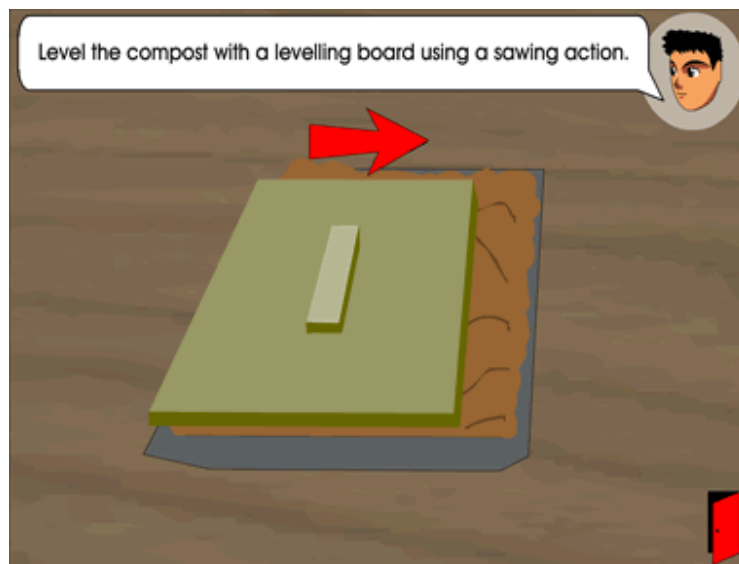

- Tray
- Compost
- Levelling Board

1. Rub the compost between your fingers to break down any large lumps of compost into fine crumbs. Overfill a clean seed tray with the compost.

2. Level the compost with a levelling board using a sawing action.

3. To finish, press down the compost with the levelling board on top of the tray.

